

Dementia Friendly Communities – Host Organizations

ACT on Alzheimer's communities have a lead, or host, organization to represent the collaboration of community sectors and members. This host organization houses the ACT community's coordinator and manages the logistics of the community engagement process. As the graphic below shows, host organizations come from many parts of the community, with the majority representing the aging services community.*

